DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is in response to the amendment filed on 8/27/06. Claims 1-38 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kobylevsky et al (2002/0060200) in view of Garcia (6,088,429), for substantially the same reasons given in the previous Office Action, and incorporated herein. Further reasons are presented hereinbelow.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed on 8/27/06 with respect to claims 1-38 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments will be addressed as the followings:

(A) At pages 2-29 of the response filed on 8/27/06, Applicant's argues the followings:

- (1) Neither Kobylevski nor Garcia suggests a method for verifying a renewal of a filled prescription prescribed by a member health care provider for a patient which can be filled through any one of a variety of member pharmacies with the member healthcare provider being associated with a computer system having a web browser and each member pharmacy having a computer system with a web browser as recited in claim 1.

(2) Garcia does not teach an Internet-based host system database, accessible by a browser, wherein doctors and pharmacies are verified for legitimacy and renewal communication is done through an internal messaging system within the host system such that renewal requests are loaded within the browser of the computer system associated with the member healthcare provider and authorizations are loaded within the browser of the computer system associated with the member pharmacy.

(3) Garcia does not teach that a user associated with a governmental agency.

(4) Garcia reference does not teach that an insurance company information could be stored, and further unable to locate support for an inference that events could include a user associated with an insurance company.

(5) Kobylevski does not seem to suggest a patient prescription history including previous prescriptions associated by at least one of a patient code, a health care provider code, and a pharmacy code nor does it seem to suggest even outputting a patient prescription history.

(6) Kobylevski reference does not suggest a step of notifying defined further as transmitting an indicator by the host system to the computer system associated with the member healthcare provider identified by the previously filled prescription stored on the host system.

(7) Kobylevski does not suggest that a healthcare provider could send a message with the authorization.

(8) Garcia does not seem to contemplate the host system storing passwords for verifying nor does it suggest actually verifying the identity of member pharmacies and member healthcare providers.

(9) Garcia reference does not seem to suggest storing passwords for verifying the identity of at least two member pharmacies not affiliated with each other. Further, Garcia does not teach an Internet-based host system database, accessible by a browser, wherein doctors and pharmacies are verified for legitimacy and renewal communication is done through an internal messaging system within the host system such that renewal requests are loaded within the browser of the computer system associated with the member health care provider and authorizations are loaded within the browser of the computer system associated with the member pharmacy.

(B) With respect to Applicant's first argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom suggested the use of a web browser (See Fig.3; Col.11, lines18-67) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(C) With respect to Applicant's second argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom suggested the use of a web browser (See Fig.2; Col.9, lines 8-67) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(D) With respect to Applicant's third argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom discloses a governmental agency (See Col.4, lines 7-17) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(E) With respect to Applicant's fourth argument, Examiner respectfully interpreted "other event of interest to the patient to be a form of insurance" that He had relied upon, See Garcia, Col.4, lines 64 to Col.5, line 4) which correspond to Applicant claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(F) With respect to Applicant's fifth argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom discloses a National Drug Code (NDC) (See Col.4, lines 7-17) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

Art Unit: 3626

(G) With respect to Applicant's sixth argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom discloses the use of identifying by the previously filled prescription stored on the host system (See Fig.2; Col.9, lines 8-67) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(H) With respect to Applicant's seventh argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom discloses a healthcare provider could send a message with the authorization (See Garcia, Col.8, lines 62-67 to Col.9, line 7) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(I) With respect to Applicant's eighth argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom discloses the use of verifying the identity of member pharmacies and member healthcare providers (See Fig.2; Col.11, lines 18-30) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(J) With respect to Applicant's first argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear and unmistakable teachings of Garcia whom suggested the use of a web browser (See Fig.3; Col.11, lines 18-67) which correspond to Applicant's claimed feature. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
